Pentecost

the Event of the Holy Spirit
the descending of the Paraclete, as Jesus ascended into Heaven in glory,
dwelling at the right hand of the Divine Father.

When Jesus ascended into Heaven
we gained the certainty of our divine Destiny, with the descending of the Holy Spirit we gained the certainty of never being alone on our earthly journey.

"When the spirit of truth comes,
he will guide you into all truth".

The very Spirit of truth descended on to the apostles that made possible the church to be born, the same church which is the continuation of Christ in history reaching us now in our lives.

We are now, led by the spirit,
the very presence of Christ in the world,
as often we are called 'the body of Christ';
the sacramental church consecrating bread and wine into the very Body and Blood of Christ who is shared among us, becoming our selves, that very presence in the world.

Let us ask the Holy Spirit to renew us in Christ, reawakening our hearts filled with the gifts of the Spirit,
so that like fire we will shine in the world with faith and hope.

fr Alfie

K of C Pancake Breakfast and AGM Sunday, May 26th

Come and support the Knights of Columbus and enjoy a delicious pancake breakfast in the Parish Hall, following the 10:00am Mass. Your meal includes pancakes, sausage, scrambled eggs, juice, coffee and tea.

Stewards of the Environment

Almost 400 children, aides and teachers, priests, parish and school secretaries, stepped out of their regular schedule to plant two potatoes apiece in the Masithuthu Garden on Monday, growing food for the benefit of our greater community. Classes were hosted and welcomed by Grade 3 students, whose role was to get, to welcome, to look after or to hand something out, under the hot sun. Both Gr. 3 teams performed a very important task and did very well. Ngiyabonga (thank you in Zulu) to all involved.

Now we wait while the magic of new life happens. Hopefully, we will be waiting about 14 days for the plants to begin sprouting.

Pentecost 2024

My Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On the Feast of Pentecost, we hear the familiar story of the Holy Spirit coming to the Apostles, appearing as “divided tongues, as of fire” (Acts 2:3). The image of the Holy Spirit as fire is a familiar one, with a rich and beautiful tradition in our Church.

This year, as we see the news reports of wildfires and evacuations starting already, and face the reality of another long, hot, and dangerous summer, I find my thoughts turning to another rich and traditional image God’s Holy Spirit: that of water. In the third century after Jesus’ birth, Saint Cyril of Jerusalem wrote this reflection on the living water of the Holy Spirit:

The water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of living water, welling up into eternal life. This is a new kind of water, a living leaping water, welling up for those who are worthy. But why did Christ call the grace of the Spirit water? Because all things are dependent on water; plants and animals have their origin in water. Water comes down from heaven as rain, and although it is always in the same in itself, it produces many different effects, one the palm tree, another in the vine, and so on through the whole of creation. It does not come down now as one thing, now as another, but while remaining essentially the same, it adapts itself to the needs of every creature that receives it.

In the same way the Holy Spirit, whose nature is always the same, simple and indivisible, apportions grace to each person as he wills. Like a dry tree which puts forth shoots when watered, the soul bears the fruit of holiness when repentance has made it worthy of receiving the Holy Spirit. Although the Spirit never changes, the effect of his action, by the will of God in the name of Christ, are both many and marvelous.

This Pentecost, I invite you to join me in praying that God will rain down his Holy Spirit upon us. May it quench our fevered anxieties; bring new life to hearts made dry and barren by fear and indifference; and refresh and sustain us in the difficult and necessary work of renewing our relationship with God, with humanity, and with all creation. Come, Holy Spirit, Come!

In Communion,

Most Reverend Gary Gordon
Bishop of Victoria

St Joseph the Worker Conference Annual Report for 2023 Saint Vincent de Paul, Vancouver Island

In 2023 our conference continued to serve our adopted families and those in need in the community. Here are some highlights of 2023 activities and outreach:

- Donated over $17 000 to the Social Concern foods program
- Sponsored the toiletry and sundry table at St Andrew's soup kitchen, purchasing a wide variety of essential items to support the homeless.
- Met and gave out numerous emergency food gift cards to families and individuals in need
- Assisted with the KOC 40 Cans for 40 Days food drive
- Held a parish food drive for World Day of the Poor in November and collected 330kg of food for the Social Concern pantry
- Assisted in the delivery of monthly food to a shut-in.
- Held a coffee house for seniors at St Andrew's manor
- Worked alongside the parish youth group to assist over 25 families in Rosalie's Village with Christmas presents

Along with our numerous 'adopted families', we assisted others in the community with numerous emergency needs like food, rental support, utilities, advocacy, and furniture.

Twinning initiatives:

Our conference sponsors two twinning initiatives abroad. In the last year we concluded our financial support to St. Joseph's Conference in Kerala, India and now have two in Colombia. In total $4 000 was sent to these conferences which allowed them to consistently provide food aid, help with housing, medical aid, and assistance for education. Holy Spirit Conference in Cucuta, Colombia continue their work in the poor areas of Cucuta, in particular Villa de la Paz with food, clothing, medicine and aiding people to help themselves through entrepreneur initiatives. Lastly, Immaculate Conference in Amalfi, Colombia have 20 monthly markets for those in need, subsidize transport to medical exams and to get medication, oversee 25 homes in the city for low income families with a focus on giving children from rural areas a chance to finish their education in the city. They also have a Vincentian spirituality program.

In closing, thank you to all St Joseph the Worker parishioners; your generosity is the reason we can continue our mission of charity. Along with continuing to support our charity work, please consider joining us! The more hands the better.

We feel truly blessed that we can continue the mission of Saint Vincent de Paul by finding and assisting those in need.

Blessings,

Stephanie Peters
